This policy is written in line with Sefton's Sefton's GUIDANCE FOR RECORDING OFF-SITE VISITS AND ADVENTUROUS ACTIVITIES.

It is essential that the Headteacher, Educational Visits Coordinator (EVC) and the Group Leaders are familiar with the contents of this policy and Sefton's Policy & Guidance for Health and Safety for Pupils and Young People on Educational

Benefits of Learning Outside the Classroom

"Every young person should experience the world beyond the classroom as an essential part of learning and personal development, whatever their age, ability or circumstances."

Learning outside the classroom is about raising achievement through an organised, powerful approach to learning in which direct experience is of prime importance. This is not only about what we learn but importantly how and where we learn.

These experiences can take place in the school grounds; local nature reserves and wild places; city farms and parks; streetscapes; field study centres; farms and the countryside; remote wild and adventurous places; heritage and cultural sites; zoos and botanic gardens; places of worship; museums, theatres, galleries and music venues; and on cultural, language and fieldwork visits abroad.

Benefits

By helping children apply their knowledge across a range of challenges, learning outside the classroom builds bridges between theory and reality, schools and communities, children and their futures.

Quality learning experiences in 'real' situations have the capacity to raise achievement across a range of subjects and to develop better personal and social skills. When these experiences are well planned, safely managed and personalised to meet the needs of every child they can:

- Improve academic achievement;
- Provide a bridge to higher order learning;
- Develop skills and independence in a widening range of environments'
- Make learning more engaging and relevant to young people;
- Develop active citizens and stewards of the environment;
- Nurture creativity;
- Provide opportunities for informal learning through play;
- Reduce behaviour problems and improve attendance;
- Stimulate, inspire and improve motivation;
- Develop the ability to deal with uncertainty;
- Provide challenge and the opportunity to take acceptable levels of risk;
- Improve young people's attitudes to learning;

Giving children responsibility for achieving these outcomes helps them to learn from their successes and failures. Learning outside the classroom provides support for many different curriculum areas. For example, all children have an entitlement to do field-work as part of their geographical studies. Linked to the curriculum, these activities provide direct and relevant experiences that deepen and enrich learning.

Insurance

All staff, children and adult helpers are covered by the following Sefton insurance policies.

Insurance arranged by the Local Authority:-

- Employers Liability Insurance: Y092874QBE0116A
- Travel insurance: Maven Underwriting; 16-PAT0000000655

N.B. This insurance does not cover personal possessions or trip cancellations and staff and pupils should take out additional insurance cover for all other contingencies).

Additional insurance which may be considered necessary by the Group Leader:-

- Overseas Personal Accident Insurance
- Increased UK coverage
- Cancellation cover

Increased coverage for journeys in the United Kingdom

While medical treatment is provided by the NHS, Head-teachers/Youth workers and party organisers should be aware of other areas of expenditure which could result from an accident or illness in the UK (e.g. additional travel or accommodation expenses incurred by hospital visits, cancellation of holidays, loss of property, disablement).

It is recommended to consider the need for insurance cover, bearing in mind that it is not always the apparently dangerous activities, which attract accidents. In general it would be prudent to arrange insurance for all overseas visits and visits in the UK that involves an overnight stay.

N.B. It is essential that parents are made fully aware of:-

1. The nature of any insurance provided.

OR

2. The needs for any extra insurance if not provided by the organiser.

OR

3. The absence of insurance cover.

In relation to all the above, it must be clearly understood that insurance cover does not apply to:-

(a) Activities undertaken privately by teachers/workers/leaders independently of school/youth club.
(b) Activities which have not been approved by the Headteacher/Youth worker or, where required, by the Governors and the Education Service

(c) Activities organised by PTAs.

(d) Private motor vehicle claims - business use must be covered by the policy holder's private insurance. Cover for business use by the policy holder may not automatically provide cover for the spouse's/partner's business use. Drivers are advised to check with their insurance companies.
